Activity	Today we are going to learn a new sound. It's a diagraph. Can you remember what that means? (Two letters together which make one sound). Today's sound is ee as in bee, see and keep. Can you practise saying today's sound and then read the words above? Make your voice sound like it is going down a slide 'eeeeee'.	Can you remember the diagraph you learnt yesterday? Say it out loud. What words can you think of that contains the ee sound? Today we are going to learn a 'trigraph'. Can you remember what it means? It's three letters that make one side. Today's sound is igh as in light, sight and tight. Think of an igh word and clap it out s-igh-t, n-igh-t.	Can you remember the 'trigraph' you learnt yesterday? Can you whisper it, now shout it and say it in a squeaky voice. Today's sound is oa as in boat, soap and coat. Practise saying today's sound and read the words to an adult. Can you whisper, shout and say oa in a funny voice?	The new diagraph today is oo. There are two ways of saying the oo sound. oo as in zoo, boot and food. Oo as in foot, cook and book. Can you think of any other oo words and write a list?	Can you remember all of the sounds you have worked on this week? Say them out loud. Can you write them? The final diagraph for this week is ar. Can you practise saying ar? Can you read the ar words? car, card and park.
